

www.CoventryEquestrianCenter.com #184

A Day in the Life of Lessons at Coventry
Sometimes I bring my camera to lessons...

Donna & Sambuca!

Nov. 20th
Terri Clemons from Tri-Color Photography will be at Coventry from 11 till... She would like to schedule portraits in 20 minute sessions. Please sign up or let me or Terri know if you are signing up.

Holistic Happenings -

Nov. 21st - Once again, the lounge is going to be active with lectures and demonstrations et al. All the talks will be something pertaining to the natural and holistic healing of our animals whether a horse, dog or cat. If you know of someone who may like to speak please send them our way. Our first speaker for Holistic Happenings is Patty Jo Duda who has studied and is certified with the Equine Touch. (www.EquineTouch.com) The date is Nov. 21st from 1-3pm. Please preregister if you would like to attend. Proceeds benefit spaying and neutering clinics as well as refreshments!

Nov. 28 - Lisa Hall from (www.ridewithharmony.com) is returning to do some lessons. Lessons cost $65.00 please let me know if you are interested. She will be here in the afternoon.

Dec 7th - Saddle fitter Bruce Close will be at Coventry at 5pm. If you need your saddle flocked or you are not sure it quite fits your horse, this is the time to have Bruce do adjustments

Valerie riding Mister Matthew

Close up of the pony MiniMe

Lexy & Kara riding Somerset

"The most important thing in communication is to hear what isn't being said."

-- Peter F. Drucker, Author and Management Expert

www.dressageanywhere.com